

I strenuously object to Sinclair Broadcast Group's plan to air "Stolen Honor", a partisan political piece as news, which it clearly is not. Also their decision to require their stations to preempt regularly scheduled programs to do so.

Don't current regulations require a presentation like this to be labelled 'opinion' and also require an 'equal time' rejoinder?

The FCC must do its job